NEWS | For Immediate Release – November 18, 2022

For the third year in a row, Aptitude Software has been recognized by Chartis Research for the strength of their IFRS 17 solutions. Most recently, Aptitude was named the category award winner for IFRS 17 – Accounting Systems in the Chartis 2023 RiskTech100® Report, which assesses leading vendors of risk technology solutions.

Aptitude is a specialist provider of finance digitalization and subscription management software solutions and provides the IFRS 17 solution of choice for leading global Insurers, Reinsurers and Insurtechs such as Aviva, Great Eastern Life, FWD Group, wefox, Hollard Group, Transamerica and many others.

Sidhartha Dash, Research Director at Chartis remarks, “For the third year running, Chartis recognizes the maturity of Aptitude’s IFRS 17 solution offerings. The depth of insurance-specific accounting IP and the level of automation, processing and reporting capabilities sets them apart in this space.”

With the IFRS 17 regulatory deadline just over a month away, Insurers are rushing to ensure all required data, calculation and reporting capabilities are in place to meet the demands of the complex new standard. Aptitude has two IFRS 17 solutions currently in the market which have been implemented in over 46 countries.
